

Everyday Life

SOCIAL INSTRUCTIONAL
SPEAKING

SPEAKING

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

1. Tell which image shows a baseball hat.

A.

B.

C.

2. It is Monday morning and Peter is getting ready for school. Look at the images and tell about Peter's morning.

1.

2.

3.

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

3. When you take care of your body, you can grow strong and healthy. One way to take care of your body is to eat fruits and vegetables. Another way to take care of your body is to go on a walk.

- Why is it important to take care of your body?

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

4. Children need their parents to teach them and to keep them safe.

A.

B.

C.

- How are these parents helping their children?

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

5. Ms. Long likes to take her family to places that sell used items that people no longer want.

- What are some things she might buy at a store like this?

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

6. After school, Holly likes to relax by reading books or coloring with markers. On the weekend, Holly enjoys staying inside and playing games with her family. When Holly spends time with her friends, they enjoy baking cookies together.

A.

B.

C.

- Do you think you would like to spend time with Holly? Why or why not?

Directions: Today we are going to practice some speaking activities. You are going to listen to a question or a statement and then answer in English.

7. Imagine that you and your best friend are playing together after school. Your friend wants to watch a movie and eat popcorn. You want to go run outside and play soccer.

- What could you say to your friend to persuade and convince them to go outside?