

Kinds of Energy

SCIENCE
LISTENING

LISTENING

Directions: In this part of the activity, you will listen to a story. Then, you will answer a question about the story. Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

 Audio Story: "Energy All Around"

1. Which of the following images is an example of energy based on the story?

Ⓐ

Ⓑ

Ⓒ

Directions: In this part of the activity, you will listen to a story. Then, you will answer a question about the story. Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

Audio Story: Excerpt 1 from “Energy All Around”

2. Which of the following can be done because of heat from the fire?

- (A) Melt chocolate
- (B) Turn on the TV
- (C) Grow corn
- (D) Call a friend

Directions: In this part of the activity, you will listen to a story. Then, you will answer questions about the story. Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

Audio Story: Excerpt 2 from “Energy All Around”

3. Which is a resource of light and heat?

- Ⓐ Rain
- Ⓑ The sun
- Ⓒ Blanket
- Ⓓ A refrigerator

SAMPLE

4. A doorbell is an example of sound energy. How does the sound of a doorbell help you?
- Ⓐ When the bell rings, it means school is over.
 - Ⓑ When the bell rings, it means a train is coming.
 - Ⓒ When the bell rings, someone is at the front door.
 - Ⓓ When the bell rings, it is time to eat dinner.

Directions: In this part of the activity, you will listen to a story. Then, you will answer a question about the story. Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

 Audio Story: "Energy All Around"

5. Look at the following images. Which image does not fit the definition of energy?

(A)

(B)

(C)

(D)

Directions: In this part of the activity, you will listen to a story. Then, you will answer a question about the story. Fill in the circle next to the correct answer.

Audio Story: "Energy All Around"

6. Mario thinks that a flower does not need light energy in order to grow. How can he test out his idea?
- Ⓐ Take a flower from the garden and put it in a vase.
 - Ⓑ Plant a flower in a pot in a dark room, then watch how it grows.
 - Ⓒ Plant flower seeds in his sunny outdoor garden, then see how long it takes to grow.
 - Ⓓ Go to the library to read about light energy.